Program Review

- Boys & Girls Club/ Positive Action: Evelyn Taylor the new program coordinator for BGC, presented program report and documentation for the month of December with a beginning count of 33 and an end count of 33. All members participated and completed the 5K for Gils on the Run program. During the Christmas holiday, the youth gave gifts that were handmade or store bought and youth did an amazing job in participating in the exchange of gifts. All youth went home with a gift. Youth behaviors are improved. Members are willing to help each other with homework and other activities. Youth are learning about positive and negative thoughts and ways they influence their lives.
- 4-H WAY (Warren Advocating for Youth): Community Service/Restitution – Terrell Alston presented program report and documentation for the month of December with a beginning count of 1 and an ending count of 1. One teen and parent withdrew from the program. Overcoming Obstacles is the required curriculum for all youth in the program. A parent and student component for families. They learned how to make a healthy meal on a budget and journaled what they learned and they learned what they like and how to make it happen. Following up with Community Service worksites to keep in touch in preparations to begin assigning students to complete their required hours. Looked into community projects to assist students with completing required hours.
- 4-H WAY (Warren Advocating for Youth): Teen Court – Terrell Alston presented documentation, program report for the month of December with a beginning count of 20 and an ending count of 20 and a year to date total of 22 youth served. The 4-H Teen Court program is continuing to go well. The last Teen Court held on January 8, 2019 at 6pm at the Warren County Courthouse. County Attorney Hassan Kingsberry presided and gave great legal information to students, and agreed to assist them through the rest of the year with court preparations. Beginning the Education Empowerment Sessions, on January 9th. Guest facilitators will come in to assist with each session. Next two court dates are Tuesday Jan. 15th and Thursday Jan. 17th both at 6pm.
