Comments

- Goble Lane, Chair - Encourages members to attend as many of the providers programs as possible because Warren County has some great youth programs. Make it a point to attend a Teen Court session or a Boys and Girls Club after-school program. It is inspiring to see these young people be enthusiastic about learning and you can really see the impact that JCPC funds are making in a youth's life.
- Barbara Brayboy – BGC has great programs and it is a good experience to see the youth with reading, playtime and other activities.
- Goble lane, Chair – Attend conferences for JCPC, they are well worth it.
- Goble lane, Chair – Would it be possible for someone to sponsor a youth or family for the BGC summer program? The Warrenton Police Department has extra funds.
 - Ashley Faucette – She will get back with Chief Lane about which youth need financial assistance.
- Goble Lane, Chair – The budget for JCPC is public record and we would like to put that on the website to keep the community informed of what we are doing with funds.
- John Hyson – The 3 year term rule designated by the county is one for concern. Can we examine how to reinterpret or ask for an exemption on that 3 year rule for this council?
 - Walter Powell – The 3 year term is for a member to set on a board for 3 years come off for one year and then may return to that board. This is set for all departments for WC boards, committee and councils. If no one from a designated/required area is willing to be on the board then the current member may stay on the board pending the Commissioners approval.
 - Goble Lane, Chair – The 3 term rule is not a bad thing in that it gives all people an opportunity to be on a board and help this community. And if no one expresses interest then a member may stay on the board until there is interest.
- John Hyson – Could the County Library be a provider?
 - Eddie Crews – Caswell County Library is a provider for CSR program for JCPC.
- Goble Lane, Chair – Providers should match what the youth needs. Each provider should match each youth individually.
